Federica Minozzi of the Iris Ceramica Group, is the CEO of the Year in the Furniture and Design category of Le Fonti Awards. The announcement and prize-giving ceremony took place on 22nd June 2017 at Palazzo Mezzanotte, the home of the Milan Stock Exchange, during a gala event with the assignment of Le Fonti Awards® in various categories.

Le Fonti Awards® is important worldwide recognition that is part of the international IAIR Awards®. Prizes are awarded for innovation and leadership and previous editions saw prizes awarded to Brunello Cucinelli and the CEO and executives of companies like Hitachi, EPSON and Fujitsu.

The jury gave Federica Minozzi, CEO of the Iris Ceramica Group her award, with the following official mention:

“For guiding a leading international group in the production of ceramic and porcelain for floor and wall coverings, for residential, commercial and industrial projects. For her commitment to following the dictates of sustainable architecture, creating ceramics that meet the parameters of green building”.

When receiving her award, Ms. Minozzi underlined that it was due to achievements by the Group that were the result of the daily commitment of everybody involved in design, research and technological innovation, as well as the Group's constant attention to environmental themes.
